Civil Application No. 4703/2007

This is an application for recording of compromise. It is stated in the application that the appellant and the respondent have mutually settled the mater on the terms stated in the civil application/compromise pursis. The compromise pursis is signed by both the appellant and the respondent as well as their respective counsel. The appellant and respondent are personally present in the Court today. They have informed that they are ad idem over the terms mentioned in this compromise as the appellant has undertaken to make a payment of Rs. 1,50,000/- to the respondent towards the full and final settlement. The respondent conveys to the Court that he shall have no claim whatsoever against the appellant on receipt of Rs. 1,50,000/-.

Parties have also agreed that they would not claim any damages against each other in view of the aforesaid amicable settlement.

For the reasons aforesaid, the compromise between the parties is recorded in terms of clauses 1, 2 and 3.

First appeal is disposed of in terms of the compromise.

The respondent submits that he has deposited certain amount in terms of the decree before the executing Court. In case, he has so deposited the amount, he would be entitled to withdraw the same on making necessary application before the executing Court.

Civil Application is disposed of accordingly.
